

ADMISSION EXEMPTIONS AFTER SEPTEMBER 5 OR FEBRUARY 5.

Applies to applicants from EU and EEA countries and those belonging to the Groups of Persons Regulation

Grounds for submitting an application after the deadline, in accordance with § 61 para. 2 of the Austrian Universities Act (UG):

- Failing to pass admission examination or admissions procedure, or Studies Introductory and Orientation Phase (StEOP) requirements for another academic degree program, provided the result for the Winter Semester is not yet available until after August 31, or after January 31 for the Summer Semester (verification is required)
- Earning general university entrance qualifications to be eligible to enroll for the Winter Semester only after August 31, or only after January 31 for the Summer Semester
- Applicants who - to the satisfaction of the responsible authority – can prove that they were prevented from meeting the deadline for the overall general admission period on account of unforeseen and/or unavoidable circumstances, and who are not at fault, or only partially at fault (verification required)

In addition to the grounds outlined in § 61 para. 2 of the Austrian Universities Act, admission in accordance with § 4 of the Rectorate's Regulation at the Johannes Kepler University Linz regarding the general and special admission deadline - and the deadline to register to enroll and continue studies towards earning a Bachelor's or Diploma degree - may be issued by October 31 at the latest for the Winter Semester, and March 31 at the latest for the Summer Semester, for the following exceptions:

- Passing supplementary examination(s) as required in the issued Letter of Admission as a prerequisite to be admitted as a degree-seeking student to an academic degree program after August 31 to begin in the Winter Semester, and after January 31 to begin during the Summer Semester;
- To take part in the Johannes Kepler University Linz' Multimedia Diploma degree program in Law;
- Re-admission to a Bachelor's or Diploma degree program at the Johannes Kepler University Linz and/or admission to an additional Bachelor's or Diploma degree program at the Johannes Kepler University Linz;
- Substantiated verification submitted by the applicant that they were prevented from meeting the deadline for the overall general admission period on account of unforeseen and/or unavoidable circumstances, and who are not at fault, or only partially at fault.
